LOCAL MATTERS.

STABBING AFFAIR ON MAIN STREET .-Within the past few months there have been two boys killed in this city by other boys during disputes which originated in very trivial causes. Yesterday, on the corner of Main and Thirteenth streets, an affair which barely escaped resulting fatally occurred, illustrating the necessity of the juvenile members of our population obeying the injunction. "Boys, never let your angry passions

James McDonough, a young white man of eighteen or nipeteen years, was seated on Giles, Jr., Maryland; Charles M. Harris, Ne the wagon of which he is driver, and Henry vada; Joseph W. Clymer, Pennsylvania. Johnson, a mulatto boy of twelve or thirteen years, with nothing to do and no character to lose, was standing near Ohio; T. M. Knight, Iowa; James W. Moss, the store of Messrs. Purcell, Ladd & Co., District of Columbia; James G. Jansen, when the latter balloed something to the Illinois. former. McDonough got there after the words had been repeated, and slapped Johnson in the face once or twice. A struggle nough on the arm near the shoulder, infleting a painful but not serious wound. But for McDonough outstretching his arm the Thompson, Indiana. knife would probably have gone to his heart. The parties were promptly arrested by Policeman Poiteaux, of the First district, and, after the wound had been dressed, were car- vania; Andrew McKenzie, Rhode Island; ried before the Police Justice, who, after hearing statements from both, continued the case until this morning, when additional evidence will be heard. Johnson was committed.

COLONEL JOB MAYO'S CASE-THREE IN-DICTMENTS DRAWN .- Three indictments against Colonel Joseph Mayo, Jr., late State grand jury of the Hustings Court, but that mond, offered a resolution that the telegrams body, after disposing of a number of other to Al., art sizes, which I will redire to con-fer winter supply at reduced prices. body, after disposing of a number of other cases, could not conclude the investigation as to Colonel Mayo, and therefore adjourned until to-day, when they will report the bills,

This one way or the other. The indictments are A NTHRACITE COAL for furnaces, Laddrawn under chapter 188, section 20, of the Code of 1873, which says:

(10) FR HILL LUMP and HAIL. for "if any director or officer of any incorporated bank, or any officer of public trust and d: BLACK Health lump. porated bank, or any officer of public trust that the next Council fire of this Great Council fire of this Great Council fire of this Great Council by burns like the Midlothian and in this State, or any officer, agent, or clerk of any incorporated company, cmb zzle or that the next Council fire of this Great Council f of any incorporated company, emb-zzle or fraudulently convert to his own use bullion, money, bank-notes, or other security for money, or any effects or property of another person, which shall have come to his possession or been placed under his care or management by virtue of his office, place, or employment, he shall be deemed guilty of larceny thereof."

The first bill is for the larceny of $3 000 in State funds, which offence first appeared in the trial of Colonel William D. Coleman, and caused Judge Guigon to issue his benchwarrant for the arrest of the accused. The second is for the larceny of between fifteen and sixteen thousand dollars-the deficit in the Treasury during Colonel Mayo's administration, as seemed from the report of the investigating committee of the General Assembly. The other bill charges the larceny of $180, being the amount of money said to have been realized by Colonel Mayo in exchanging certain consols for peelers.

It these, or any of these, are returned "true bills" the trial will proceed as soon as pos-

LUMBER INSPECTIONS - A KNOTTY QUESported by two of the regularly-licensed Master, be referred to the Judiciary Commeasurers. Mr. Whitlock claimed that he mittee. has the right to measure his own lumber, and argued that if he has that right be latter said that on account of this outside interference with his business he had resolved hereafter to have all his lumber coming from the North measured there before being put on ship-board. He had four or five ships now on their way loaded with lumber, all of which had been measured. His objection to the licensed measurers was not that they cost him more than his own measurers-on the contrary, they cost less-but it was because he desired his lumber, when the Great Council approve the acts of the measured, to be sorted in a particular way. The Police Justice took the case under advisement, and will render his decision on Saturday. If it is favorable to Mr. Whitlock be unnecessary for any one to take out a license hereafter.

THE TINSLEY CASE .- The case of A. D. Tinsley, junk-dealer, indicted for receiving a mantity of pig-iron, stolen by negroes from Messrs. William E. Tanner & Co., proprietors of the Metropolitan Iron-Works, occupied the attention of the Hustings Court until a late hour fast evening, when the evidence was concluded, and the court adjourned until this morning. The jury was placed in the hands of the Sergeant. Argument will be commenced this morning. Judge Crump and Captain George D. Wise, counsel for accused, have fought the prosecution step by

The Banquet.

The grand banquet at the Virginia Opera-House last night was a fitting conclusion of the day's work and the festivities incident to the sessions of the Great Council of Red Men. A number of distinguished citizens and other invited guests were present, ineluding Governor Kemper, Mayor A. M. Keiley, and others, and the entertainment was fully enjoyed by all. The banquet was one of the most elegant ever spread in this city, and was gotten up under the management of Mr. J. S. Dodson, of the Park Hotel. The bill of fare was tempting in the extreme. It embraced oysters cooked in every conceivable way, barbacued venison, roast wild duck, buffalo tongue, roast pig, gelatine of wild goose, canvass-back duck, mallard duck a la St. ice cream, chocolate russes, chocolate puffs, jelly roll, etc., etc. One wearies almost to cat. There was also an abundance of champagne wine of choice brands, claret, sherry, &c. If Mr. Dodson had no reputation before as a No. 1 caterer, he has certainly secured one now.

The festivities were kept up until a late hour of the night.

THE DALL TO-NIGHT.

The ball to be given to-night by Jamestown Tribe, in honor of the Great Council, at Levys' Hall, promises to be a most elegant affair. The members of the tribe have put their shoulders to the wheel and will leave nothing undone for the enjoyment and pleasure of their guests. If any assignee shall pay, or any registrar shall order the payment of, any money which has not been deposited in bank in pursuance of the said rules of court, the payment will be disallowed, and the act will be treated as illegal and as a contempt of court.

GOOD PROSPECT FOR FALL TRADE.-The largely-increased business between Baltimore, Richmond, and the South has rendered additional steamers necessary for carrying tonnage over the York River line. The magnificent steamers Havana and Louise are now running between Baltimore and West Point in connection with the York River railroad, and the largest cargoes that bave ever been taken from Baltimore on sidewheel steamers have recently been carried by the steamers of this line. The general business outlook is better than it has been for two years. THE FRAUD OF THE RING .- A young white man, professing to be a railroad hand out of employment, has been swindling many people in this vicinity. He has a carpet-bag full of the Montpeller Female Humane Association of heavy-plated rings, which to all appearances are of pure and solid gold, and whenever he comes across any one likely to interest on same. INDICTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY .- The grand jury of the Hustings Court yesterday indicted Roxanna Hill (colored) for feloni ously appropriating articles of the value of $3 05, the property of Mary Moran; also, for feloniously appropriating $10, the property of the same person-two indictments. William Smith alias Freeman, a colored sinner whose sands of life have nearly run out, was indicted for stealing a lot of pig-iron-a part of the pile from which that was stolen for receiving which Mr. Tinsley is now undergoing trial. The average darky can no more help stealing pig-iron than he can help patting his foot when he hears a fiddle playing. Yet, pig-iron is the heaviest of portable articles. It is the hardest to sell, it brings the smallest amount of money, and the theft of it is denounced by the law passed at the last session of the Legislature as particularly atro-
